ARE ALL FOR WILSON

ESTIMATES GATHERED FROM EVERYWHERE INDICATE IT.

BIG POPULAR PLURALITY

Nationwide Polls Give Democrats the Presidency and Both Branches of Congress if Democrats Vote.

Estimates gathered by St. Louis Post-Dispatch and New York World correspondents in every state in the country and based upon the leaders of all the parties indicate little change in the forecast of the national election published last Sunday. These indications are as follows:

That Wilson and Marshall should carry 39 of the 48 states with a total of 484 out of the 531 electoral votes.

That President Taft will carry seven states with a total of 32 electoral votes.

That Colonel Roosevelt will carry two states with a total of 15 electoral votes.

That the Democrats will surely win three senate seats and have an overwhelming majority in the house.

That the popular plurality for Wilson and Marshall will exceed 2,500,000 votes.

That the plurality for Wilson and Marshall in New York state will approximate 120,000, and that Sulzer will have a plurality of at least 60,000 over Hedges, the regular Republican candidate, who will in turn lead Strauss, the Progressive candidate.

The reports upon which the estimates are based indicate that the Democratic national candidates probably will carry the following states:

States—	Electoral vote

Arizona	3
California	13
Connecticut	7
Delaware	3
Florida	6

Total	32

The only two states credited to Col. Roosevelt by the estimates are:

DEATH OF MISS M'CABE.

Passed Away Monday Morning at St. Francis Hospital, Where She Was Taken for Treatment Tuesday.

Miss Bridget McCabe, an aunt of P. L. Growney of this city and of Phillip and Lawrence Growney of Conception, died at St. Francis hospital Monday morning, where she went for treatment Tuesday of last week. Miss McCabe had been in poor health, and it was thought that a course of treatment at the hospital would benefit her. She was doing nicely and at 5 o'clock Monday morning one of the Sisters visited her room and talked with her a little while and she was apparently better. When the Sister returned to her room at 7 o'clock to give her her breakfast she was dead. Her death was due to a sudden weakness of the heart that was already seriously affected.

Miss McCabe was 60 years old and had been the housekeeper for her nephew, Phillip Growney, for a number of years.

The funeral services will take place Wednesday morning at New Engleberg Abbey church at Conception. Burial in St. Columbia cemetery.

Miss Bess Worl was the winner of the piano in the sixty days' sale contest that closed in Skidmore Saturday night. Miss Worl received 48,000 votes and the high school, a close second in the contest, received 44,000.

MRS. JOHN JACKSON DEAD.

Had Been a Patient at St. Francis Hospital Since Tuesday—Funeral Tuesday Afternoon.

Mrs. John Jackson, who was taken to St. Francis hospital Tuesday of last week for a surgical operation, which she underwent Wednesday, died at 6:30 o'clock Monday morning from an affection of the brain which developed after the operation. Mrs. Jackson became unconscious Saturday evening at 7:30 and gradually grew weaker until her death. The funeral services will take place at the Jackson home, 219 South Newton street, Tuesday afternoon, conducted by Rev. S. D. Harkness of the First Presbyterian church. Burial will take place in Miriam cemetery.

Mrs. Jackson was a native of Iowa, where she was born fifty-seven years ago last July. She came with her husband to Maryville twenty years ago, and they have lived in the same place on South Newton street. She was a member of the Presbyterian church since girlhood and was a devoted Christian wife and mother. She is survived by her husband and six children, Mrs. John Coburn of Pickering, Mrs. Dennis Holladay, Frank Jackson, Wesley and Jennings Jackson and Miss Nina Jackson.

Mrs. Amon Curfman and son, Ardery, and Mrs. Benjamin F. Shaum of Tarkio drove to Maryville Sunday in the Curfman car to spend the day with relatives. Curfman of Salida, Col., who was called here on account of the serious illness of his father, Judge John C. Curfman.

COUNTY FOR WILSON

DEMOCRATS CLAIM THEIR CANDIDATE WILL WIN.

LARGE VOTE TO BE POLLED

Single Tax Will Receive Large Negative Vote and May Cause Defeat of Other Amendments.

Although it was the last day before election, the county candidates were more busy today than they have been for some time, and there was no cessation of activities in the camps of the respective parties in Maryville. The last estimates of the possible strength of the candidates at the polls tomorrow are being cast up, and there are the usual prognostications based on the polls reported.

The Democrats are very hopeful of electing their county ticket and that Nodaway will go for Wilson is freely predicted. The voters will also cast a heavy vote here against the single tax amendments, Nos. 6 and 7, and the chances are that all amendments will fail to receive a majority in this county.

The election tomorrow promises to be a very interesting one. There don't seem to be as much excitement over this coming election as there has been before, but a large vote will be cast.

The voting places for Maryville and Polk township will be as follows:

Polk A, or Fourth ward—Blacksmith shop across from Star livery barn.

Polk B, or Third ward—Gray's sale pavilion.

Polk C, or Second ward—Robey's garage.

Polk D, or First ward—City hall.

A NEAR AUTO ACCIDENT.

The Rankin and Townsend Cars Collided Sunday Morning Near Burlington Junction.

S. H. Townsend of this city and W. A. Rankin's car of Illinois narrowly escaped a serious automobile accident Sunday morning about a mile and a half west of Burlington Junction. Mr. Townsend was going west in his car, and when he saw a car coming from the opposite direction he turned out to the side of the road, but when he got near, owing to a ditch, Mr. Townsend turned his car in, the Rankin car striking the front end of the Townsend car and turning it completely around. No one was hurt and the damage to the Townsend car will not amount to more than $50, stated Mr. Townsend. No blame is attached to Mr. Rankin for the accident, Mr. Townsend added.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Mutz spent Sunday with Mrs. Mutz's mother, Mrs. S. S. Casteel, and family.

NEW METHODS OF CHURCH WORK

Rev. Mr. Randolph in Sermon Sunday Made Suggestions for This Work.

Saying that the church work, as now directed, placed too much stress upon mere self perpetuation and not enough upon social service, Rev. J. D. Randolph Sunday, at the Southern Methodist church outlined a program for the year. He suggested that the official board select chairmen from its membership for the following committees: Publicity, fellowship, and social service. He said that while those who belong to the great fraternity of evil doers knew how to take care of their own, Christian people would not stick together either with influence or ballots to protect those who stood for the moral interests of the city. He expressed the hope that through these committees his church might become a more positive force for righteousness in Maryville. The congregation seemed to take up the suggestions.

TINY GIRL BABY IS DEAD.

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Keegin Died Saturday Night—Buried Sunday Afternoon.

The tiny baby daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Keegin, weighing a pound and a half, born to them Wednesday noon, died Saturday night about 11 o'clock from inward spasms with which she was seized Saturday morning. The funeral services were held at the home Sunday afternoon by Rev. Claude J. Miller of the Christian church. The little casket, the smallest that could be secured, was carried by the undertaker, J. E. Bailey. The little body was ten inches long and the shroud for it was twelve inches long. The casket was filled up with lace and satin cushions to within three inches of the top, and that space was scarcely filled by the body. When the casket was covered, one small bouquet of flowers was all that it would hold. The burial took place in Oak Hill cemetery, by the bodies of two other baby girls that Mr. and Mrs. Keegin have lost.

RAISED $472 FOR SCHOOL.

At the First M. E. Church Sunday Money Was Given for the Wesleyan College at Cameron, Mo.

At the First M. E. church Sunday morning $472 was raised for the Wesleyan college of Cameron, which is a Methodist school. W. A. Rankin of Illinois, who has given $25,000, with the understanding that so much more will be raised, was in attendance at the services and made a short talk. Professor Clelland of Wesleyan college gave the evening sermon in place of Rev. G. S. Cox, and his subject was "Christian Education."

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McCreary, Mrs. Mary Swain and Miss Anna Swain of Carthage, Ill., who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Preston Seafers and family, left for their home Monday.

Herschel Colbert and Edwin Goodspeed, who are attending the state university at Columbia, came home Sunday morning to vote at the election Tuesday. This will be their first vote.

A GOLDEN WEDDING

MR. AND MRS. JOHN W. COLEMAN MARRIED FIFTY YEARS.

BEGAN ON WEANING FARM

Nearly All the Family Present and a Happy Time Was Enjoyed—Some Interesting Events Recalled.

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Coleman, living at 1307 East First street, received many friends Saturday afternoon, November 2, from 2 until 5 o'clock, who called to extend congratulations and happiest wishes on that day because it was their golden wedding anniversary.

All the arrangements for the celebration had been made by their children, and the bride and groom of fifty years had not been allowed a hand's turn in the affair, so that they would not be fatigued in any way on the anniversary day. They certainly looked well, strong and happy for the day's festivities and showed no signs of weariness from meeting their friends, but were apparently the better for it, and, judging by Mr. Coleman's appearance Monday morning at the grain and coal station, near the Burlington depot, where he has charge of the weighing, he has taken a new lease on life and is good for several days' business.

The rooms of the Coleman residence had been beautified with leaves in all the rich colorings and tones of autumn. A daughter and daughter-in-law, Mrs. A. J. Harris of Waurika, Okla., and Mrs. John L. Coleman of this city, received the guests and presented them to Mr. and Mrs. Coleman. Punch was served by Miss Mabel Hunt, when each guest registered at the table where Mrs. Howard Strong presided.

Ersel Harris, a granddaughter, pinned an autumn leaf, fastened with ribbon of gold, on each guest as they passed to the dining room, where an elegant two-course luncheon was served by two nieces of the bride and groom, Mrs. Howard Strong and Mrs. Frank Ewing, assisted by Mrs. Charles Coleman of Pickering and Mr. and Mrs. Frank B. Coleman of Hopkins.

All through the afternoon splendid instrumental music on piano, violin, baritone and graphophone by Misses Mary and Vernie Thomas, while several very appropriate vocal numbers were given by Miss Ethel Ray and Miss Vernie Thomas. Among the vocal selections were "Put On Your Old Gray Bonnet," "Silver Threads Among the Gold" and "She Was Bred in Old Kentucky."

Mr. and Mrs. Coleman received many beautiful gifts, among them several pieces of gold money.

One guest of Saturday afternoon, Mrs. Glover Kelley, was present at Mr. and Mrs. Coleman's wedding fifty years ago. Mrs. Kelley was then 6-year-old Marietta Green, and she went to the wedding with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Green of Pickering. Mrs. Green, now widowed, has recently come to Maryville to live with her children, Mrs. Kelley, Mrs. John Wallace and Alfred Green, but was not able to attend the celebration Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Coleman were married on Sunday, November 2, 1862, in the presence of fifty relatives and near friends. In those days a wedding couldn't come off unless all the relatives were there. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. D. David, who now lives in Southern Iowa at 12

THE PEOPLE'S CANDIDATE.

Governor Wilson is more than the Democratic candidate in this campaign.

Governor Wilson is the people's candidate against the trusts; the candidate of American principles against bureaucracy.

The trusts got control of the government at Washington while the people slept. Now the trusts want to establish bureaucracy at Washington to maintain trust control; and both Taft and Roosevelt are working with them.

The election of Governor Wilson will end the scheme of trust control.

Governor Wilson will close the door of privilege, through which the trusts entered the sanctuary of government; and open the door of opportunity, which the trusts shut and bolted.

Vote for Governor Wilson.

It looks like Bulgaria would have Turkey for Thanksgiving.

Burst the office-holding trust two or three Republicans have formed at the court house.

Ed Wallace is a fine young man and will make an ideal sheriff. He has never held a county office. Give him your help.

Every old soldier will remember Hon. Charles F. Booher. This district has never had a man in congress who has done so much for them.

The Republican national committee has in mind the names of several from which to select a running mate for Mr. Taft, but they are not worrying. What difference does it make?

It's too bad Governor Hadley failed to get here. We may never have another chance to hear a Republican governor in Missouri.

A vote for Taft is a vote to pay more for American made goods at home than they pay for the same goods in Europe.

The Democratic ticket this year is worthy of your support. Begin with the Wilson electors and vote the ticket straight down to and including constable.

Nobody but Democrats will be responsible if they fail to win tomorrow. Don't be too confident. Many a battle has been lost by over-confidence.

Remember Nodaway county's friend in congress. Remember that he has done much for this county already and will be able and glad to do more. His Republican opponent has not thought enough of this county to come into it during this campaign. Vote for Hon. Charles F. Booher.

SHOT AT HIS WIFE.

Carl Griffey, Who, It is Said, Was Intoxicated, Fired Two Shots.

A shooting nearly occurred at Clearmont Saturday when Carl Griffey returned to his home in that town in an intoxicated condition, it is reported. Mr. Griffey fired two shots from a revolver at his wife, both shots missing.

The shots were heard by nearby neighbors, who ran at once to the Griffey home. Ed Wallace was called and he arrested Mr. Griffey, who gave bond for his appearance in justice court at Clearmont.

o'clock noon, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Smith, at Old Xenia, northeast of Maryville. A great wedding feast followed and then all went to church in the afternoon. The next day the infair dinner was given at the home of the groom's parents, Dr. and Mrs. Josiah Coleman, whose farm was on the site where Pickering now is. The bride and groom, attended by six young couples, rode horseback from the home of the bride's father to the infair.

Mr. Coleman had been engaged to teach the school in the Pickering district, and they went to housekeeping in the "weaning house" on his father's farm. Dr. Coleman, the father, had shown himself to be a practical man. Three of his children had previously married and he had erected a little house on his farm, near his own home, that he called the "weaning house," as it was the place all his children lived the first two years after they were married, where they got their start and proved themselves equal to leaving the "home nest." When they could buy a farm of their own they left the "weaning house" and faced the problems of life alone.

When the Mr. and Mrs. Coleman of this sketch had lived at the "weaning house" not quite two years, they bought a farm about a half mile west of Pickering and located there, where he engaged in farming and cattle shipping for twenty-three years, when they moved to Colorado in 1887, and later to Southeastern Kansas, returning to Nodaway county in the same vicinity of Pickering in 1894. Seven years ago they moved to Maryville and bought their comfortable home on East First street, where they expect to spend the rest of their life.

Mr. Coleman was born in Adams county, Ill., near Quincy, in March, 1841, and Mrs. Coleman, whose maiden name was Mary Rebecca Smith, was born in Lawrence county, Ohio, in March, 1842. Mr. Coleman's father, a pioneer physician of this county, came to the county in 1855 and entered the land that afterward became Pickering. His children all went to school at Old Xenia, married and took their turns in living at the "weaning house."

John Coleman enlisted in the Missouri state militia in April, 1862, at the outbreak of the civil war, for six months. And although the war had only just begun at the end of that time, he had had enough of it, and did not re-enlist, but came home to marry the girl he had left behind, "because," he said, "I knew that if I did not marry her then that some one else was liable to get her, for she was the prettiest girl in the country, and I wasn't going to run any risks."

Mrs. Coleman told on Saturday afternoon, while talking of the old days with her friends there, several of whom she had known for fifty years, of a Sunday during a wet season when the 102 river was up so high that travel over it was out of the question, that her mother said to her, "I'm afraid you'll not see John today." "But I knew I would, and sure enough he came in the afternoon. He had tied his clothing on his back and swam the river in order to keep his word with me. And he did it a good many times after that," she said with pride.

Mr. Coleman cast his first vote for president on the Tuesday after his wedding day. He voted for Abraham Lincoln, and he has voted the Republican ticket ever since. "And I want you to distinctly understand that I am a Republican yet," he said Saturday. "I shall vote for President Taft because I believe he is the highest type of a Republican. I think Roosevelt is a great big nothin, and I do not care who knows it. Mr. Taft is a man among men; Mr. Roosevelt is a big bluffer, according to my notion."

A poll was taken of the children and other relatives Saturday, and some of the children differed from their father and some of the grandchildren dared be Bull Moosers to a finish against their grandfather, while others were for Wilson, but everybody was good natured, and all seemed to take pleasure in the fact that Grandfather Coleman could beat them all hands down in an argument. He has kept in close touch with all political life since he was a young man and is as well informed as any man in private life.

One disappointment of the day was that the officiating minister of fifty years ago could not be present on account of severe illness, and one daughter, who lives in Idaho, could not be present.

Mr. and Mrs. Coleman have had seven children, five of whom are living: Mrs. F. D. Young of Boise, Idaho; John L. Coleman and Frank B. Coleman of Maryville, Mrs. A. J. Harris of Waurika, Okla., and Mrs. Luster Johnson of St. Louis. Also nine grandchildren and one great-grandchild. They are Miss LaVern Young of Boise, Idaho; LaNeta, wife of Dr. Albert Nace of Tacoma, Wash., and their son, Fay Morris; Dedrick, Eugene, Harris and Bovoice Coleman, children of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Coleman; Raphael and Thelma Coleman, children of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Coleman, and Ersel Harris, [illegible] of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Harris.

High Grade Fashionable Furs

The recent colder weather at once brings to mind Furs—and naturally the thought which follows is of the store of best selections in the trustworthy grades—the store where one is sure to receive the fullest equivalent for the money expended. Buying Furs calls for utmost confidence in your purchasing place. That is too important a matter to be disregarded. We sell all Furs for exactly what they are.

Mr. Ellwood E. Huebner

Of Detroit, Michigan,

Representing one of the largest and highest grade Fur houses in the United States will be at our store next Saturday, November 9th, all day, with a large line of Ladies' Fur Coats, sets and single pieces in muffs and scarfs. Mr. Huebner will have Furs of all grades and those interested in fine Fur Coats, and exclusive styles and variety of Furs in the better grades will be interested in seeing these Furs next Saturday.

Mr. Huebner is not a traveling salesman just going over the country selling a sample line of Furs, but represents as we say above, one of the highest grade Fur houses in the country, and we stand back of any garment purchased that day.

Cider and doughnuts was the last course of a delightful evening. A large crowd was in attendance.

Mrs. McMillan to St. Joseph.

The St. Joseph News-Press of Saturday says that St. Joseph's coterie of musicians has just received a welcome addition in the person of Mrs. America F. McMillan, soloist and teacher, from New York City and Kansas City, who will shortly make her appearance in a series of recitals and informal studio teas, a pleasant custom she will inaugurate in that city. This will not interfere with Mrs. McMillan's weekly visits to Maryville with her vocal class work here. Mr. McMillan will also be located in St. Joseph in his insurance business. The News-Press printed an excellent picture of Mrs. McMillan.

C. W. B. M. Meeting.

The C. W. B. M. meet at the church parlors at the Christian church on Friday afternoon and Mrs. Belle Davenport lead the meeting. Mrs. George Hartley read a very interesting paper on "Needs of the Fields for C. W. B. M. Day." A story on "Spiking" was read by Mrs. Henry Westfall and Mrs. J. W. Ray had a very instructive paper on "Loyalty to the Constitution." The hidden answers were conducted by Mrs. Davenport. Miss Marie Ritz gave a piano number and Miss Ruth Reuillard a solo, both numbers being much enjoyed. A business meeting followed the program.

Party for Sunday School Class.

The class taught by W. A. Miller in the First Christian church Bible school gave a Hallowe'en party at the home of Miss Blanche Masters, on South Fillmore street, Friday evening. Fortune telling, bobbing for apples and other Hallowe'en games, made lots of merriment. Apples, cider, doughnuts and candy were served during the evening. Those present were Virginia Robinson, Mary Wooldridge, Helen Dean, Gladys Morehouse, Mary Condon, Elfreida Linville, Lela Maier, Marie Cloud, Lou Mutz, Juanita Neal, Blanche Landfather, Fay Farmer, Lillie Mays, Mary Edmundston, Sylvia Frazee, Mary Miller, Virginia Lawson, Leska Wray, Marie Davenport, Gladys Goforth, Gladys Bookman, Maggie McClurg and W. A. Miller.

Fifteenth Wedding Anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Yehle thought to quietly observe their fifteenth wedding anniversary Sunday by entertaining Mr. Yehle's mother and sister, Mrs. Josephine Yehle and Miss Katherine Yehle, at dinner, and in that way kept their friends from knowing how old they were getting to be, but Sunday evening they went to the home of Mr. Yehle's mother, upon invitation from her to take Sunday evening luncheon at her home. They found a company of friends waiting to congratulate them on their youthful appearance and to celebrate the anniversary in a fitting manner. A delightful evening was spent at cards, when the hostesses, Mrs. Yehle and Miss Yehle, served a dainty luncheon. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Yehle, Mr. and Mrs. N. Sturm, Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Felix, Mr. and Mrs. John Kirch, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Blatter, Mr. N. Schumacher, Misses Lenore and Rose Schumacher and Miss Agatha Kirch.

Next Thursday night Mayor Henry L. Jost of Kansas City will deliver an address under the auspices of the Presbyterian church. This address will be free and the public in general is invited to be present. After the speaking the ladies of the church will serve a luncheon in the basement, for which a small sum will be charged.

Last Tuesday evening a number of the friends of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Robb surprised them by going in and helping them celebrate their 20th wedding anniversay. The evening was spent in playing 500, at the close of which delightful refreshments consisting of sandwiches, fried chicken, salad, pickles and olives, ice cream, cake and coffee were served by the ladies. Mr. and Mrs. Robb were presented a tea set of white and gold Havaland china. The following guests were present: Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Wolfers, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Donlin, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wooldridge, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Clutter, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. McMasters, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Brown, Mrs. J. W. Lindsay, Misses Lou Hughs, Edna Bonewitz, Kate and May Browne and Messrs. Sim and Sam Browne, Jake Haff and J. F. Robb.

Wednesday afternoon Mrs. Arthur McMaster entertained the Ladies' Aid Society of the Presbyterian church at her home north of town. Thirty-five were in attendance and a fine time reported by all.

On the same afternoon Mrs. A. J. Gordon entertained the ladies of the M. E. church at which there was also a good attendance.

Thursday afternoon the ladies of chapter K, P. E. O. were invited to hold a call meeting at the home of Mrs. Roy Wolfers at Pickering. The trip was made very nicely in automobiles, but just as they reached Pickering the storm came up suddenly and the ladies were practically snowed in by the first snow of the season. The drivers, F. B. Monroe, W. L. Morehead and J. F. Robb returned at once to Hopkins, while J. A. McMaster and E. C. Wolfers, Sr., waited until the next day to bring their machines home. It being Hallowe'en, Mrs. Wolfers had her home decorated for the occasion and the rooms looked very pretty, with crysanthemums, autumn leaves and berries and jack-o'lanterns. The afternoon was spent principally by the initiation ceremony of the chapter, the new member being Mrs. Fred Wooldridge of Hopkins. After this was concluded a ghost and witch appeared and led the company to the attic, where, after numerous questions, it was found Mrs. J. L. Downer was the latest bride of the chapter, upon which the ghost presented her with numerous packages, which proved to be gifts from her P. E. O. sisters. As the P. E. O. had given Mrs. Downer a "fake shower" at the time of her marriage last spring, they made up for it handsomely as this time, and the "bride" was not only surprised but very much pleased, and expressed herself in a few well chosen words. After the "shower" came the feast, which Mrs. Wolfers served in a truly Hallowe'en style, using tin cups, paper plates, etc., but the buns, hot weenies, pumpkin pie, ginger bread and coffee tasted the best ever to the hungry crowd. The rest of the evening was spent in toasting marshmallows, singing songs, and so forth, until train time, when all said good-bye and soon reached home a tired, though happy, crowd.

Moore's Reply to Skidmore.

The publishing of the following affidavits is in no sense a part of the issue between the Nodaway County Anti-Saloon Alliance and Mr. Skidmore. They are simply a part of an issue between Mr. Moore and Mr. Skidmore. As Mr. Skidmore denies what Mr. Moore affirms concerning a certain conversation in Jefferson City, Mr. Moore is entitled to a rejoinder. I take it that the voters of Nodaway county are not primarily concerned about this question of veracity, but are concerned about Mr. Skidmore's attitude toward the county unit local option bill and kindred measures that are to come before the legislature this winter. Is he for them, or is he against them? That is what the voters of Nodaway county want to know. C. H. JOHN,
Secretary Anti-Saloon Alliance.

On Tuesday, September 10, 1912, between 9 a. m. and noon, I had a talk with Mr. W. J. Skidmore, the Democratic candidate for state reprsentative from Nodaway county.

The conversation took place in the lobby of the Madison house, Jefferson City, Mo.

The subject we discussed was the proposed county unit local option bill. Mr. Skidmore emphatically expressed his opposition to such a measure, and led me to believe if elected he would not vote for it. He expressed the opinion that the people of the county living outside of the county seat ought not be allowed within the corporate limits of said county seat. I argued the question with him a long time, but he held tenaciously to this and other arguments against county unit that he advanced.

(Signed) E. J. MOORE.

Sworn and subscribed to before me, a notary public, this 1st day of November, 1912.

My term expires March 1, 1914.

(Seal) LAURA T. WEST,
Notary Public.

I was present with E. J. Moore in the lobby of the Madison house, Jefferson City, Mo., on Tuesday, September 10, 1912, when he talked with W. J. Skidmore. I heard all of the conversation.

Mr. Skidmore was emphatic in his opposition to the county unit bill, arguing against it through their long talk, not even willing to concede that he would vote for the bill if it was manifestly the wish of the majority of his constituents.

After Mr. Moore left Mr. Skidmore I continued to talk, and for over half an hour we argued the question. Mr. Skidmore was extreme in his denunciation of the county unit proposition.

(Signed) E. F. JONES.

Sworn and subscribed to before me, a notary public, this 1st day of November, 1912.

My term expires March 1, 1914.

DON'T PULL OUT THE GRAY HAIRS

A Few Applications of a Simple Remedy Will Bring Back the Natural Color.

"Pull out one gray hair and a dozen will take its place" is an old saying, which is, to a great extent, true, if no steps are taken to stop the cause. When gray hairs appear it is a sign that Nature needs assistance. It is Nature's call for help. Gray hair, dull, lifeless hair, or hair that is falling out, is not necessarily a sign of advancing age, for there are thousands of elderly people with perfect heads of hair without a single streak of gray.

When gray hairs come, or when the hair seems to be lifeless or dead, some good, reliable hair-restoring treatment should be resorted to at once. Specialists say that one of the best preparations to use is the old-fashioned "sage tea" which our grandparents used. The best preparation of this kind is Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, a preparation of domestic sage and sulphur, scientifically compounded with later discovered hair tonics and stimulants, the whole mixture being carefully balanced and tested by experts.

Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur is clean and wholesome and perfectly harmless. It refreshes dry, parched hair, removes dandruff and gradually restores faded or gray hair to its natural color.

Don't delay another minute. Start using Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur at once and see what a difference a few days' treatment will make in your hair. This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle, and is recommended and sold by all druggists.

VOLUME 3. MARYVILLE, MISSOURI, MONDAY, NOV. 4, 1912. NO. 132.

ARE ALL FOR WILSON

ESTIMATES GATHERED FROM EVERYWHERE INDICATE IT.

BIG POPULAR PLURALITY

Nationwide Polls Give Democrats the Presidency and Both Branches of Congress if Democrats Vote.

Estimates gathered by St. Louis Post-Dispatch and New York World correspondents in every state in the country and based upon the leaders of all the parties indicate little change in the forecast of the national election published last Sunday. These indications are as follows:

That Wilson and Marshall should carry 39 of the 48 states with a total of 484 out of the 531 electoral votes.

That President Taft will carry seven states with a total of 32 electoral votes.

That Colonel Roosevelt will carry two states with a total of 15 electoral votes.

That the Democrats will surely win three senate seats and have an overwhelming majority in the house.

That the popular plurality for Wilson and Marshall will exceed 2,500,000 votes.

That the plurality for Wilson and Marshall in New York state will approximate 120,000, and that Sulzer will have a plurality of at least 60,000 over Hedges, the regular Republican candidate, who will in turn lead Strauss, the Progressive candidate.

The reports upon which the estimates are based indicate that the Democratic national candidates probably will carry the following states:

States—	Electoral vote
Alabama	12
Arkansas	9
Arizona	3
California	13
Connecticut	7
Delaware	3
Florida	6
Georgia	14
Illinois	29

Pennsylvania	38
Rhode Island	5
South Carolina	9
South Dakota	5
Tennessee	12
Texas	20
Virginia	12
West Virginia	8

Total	484

The states which the estimates show to be favorable to President Taft are:

States—	Electoral vote
Colorado	6
Idaho	4
New Hampshire	4
Utah	4
Vermont	4
Washington	7
Wyoming	3
Total	32

The only two states credited to Col. Roosevelt by the estimates are:

DEATH OF MISS M'CABE.

Passed Away Monday Morning at St. Francis Hospital, Where She Was Taken for Treatment Tuesday.

Miss Bridget McCabe, an aunt of P. L. Growney of this city and of Phillip and Lawrence Growney of Conception, died at St. Francis hospital Monday morning, where she went for treatment Tuesday of last week. Miss McCabe had been in poor health, and it was thought that a course of treatment at the hospital would benefit her. She was doing nicely and at 5 o'clock Monday morning one of the Sisters visited her room and talked with her a little while and she was apparently better. When the Sister returned to her room at 7 o'clock to give her her breakfast she was dead. Her death was due to a sudden weakness of the heart that was already seriously affected.

Miss McCabe was 60 years old and had been the housekeeper for her nephew, Phillip Growney, for a number of years.

The funeral services will take place Wednesday morning at New Engleberg Abbey church at Conception. Burial in St. Columbia cemetery.

Won the Piano.

Miss Bess Worl was the winner of the piano in the sixty days' sale contest that closed in Skidmore Saturday night. Miss Worl received 48,000 votes and the high school, a close second in the contest, received 44,000.

MRS. JOHN JACKSON DEAD.

Had Been a Patient at St. Francis Hospital Since Tuesday—Funeral Tuesday Afternoon.

Mrs. John Jackson, who was taken to St. Francis hospital Tuesday of last week for a surgical operation, which she underwent Wednesday, died at 6:30 o'clock Monday morning from an affection of the brain which developed after the operation. Mrs. Jackson became unconscious Saturday evening at 7:30 and gradually grew weaker until her death. The funeral services will take place at the Jackson home, 219 South Newton street, Tuesday afternoon, conducted by Rev. S. D. Harkness of the First Presbyterian church. Burial will take place in Miriam cemetery.

Mrs. Jackson was a native of Iowa, where she was born fifty-seven years ago last July. She came with her husband to Maryville twenty years ago, and they have lived in the same place on South Newton street. She was a member of the Presbyterian church since girlhood and was a devoted Christian wife and mother. She is survived by her husband and six children, Mrs. John Coburn of Pickering, Mrs. Dennis Holladay, Frank Jackson, Wesley and Jennings Jackson and Miss Nina Jackson.

Mrs. Amon Curfman and son, Ardery, and Mrs. Benjamin F. Shaum of Tarkio drove to Maryville Sunday in the Curfman car to spend the day with relatives. They were accompanied home by Mr. Curfman, who had been in Maryville since Friday night, and his nephew, Dr. G. H. Curfman of Salida, Col., who was called here on account of the serious illness of his father, Judge John C. Curfman.

COUNTY FOR WILSON

DEMOCRATS CLAIM THEIR CANDIDATE WILL WIN.

LARGE VOTE TO BE POLLED

Single Tax Will Receive Large Negative Vote and May Cause Defeat of Other Amendments.

Although it was the last day before election, the county candidates were more busy today than they have been for some time, and there was no cessation of activities in the camps of the respective parties in Maryville. The last estimates of the possible strength of the candidates at the polls tomorrow are being cast up, and there are the usual prognostications based on the polls reported.

The Democrats are very hopeful of electing their county ticket and that Nodaway will go for Wilson is freely predicted. The voters will also cast a heavy vote here against the single tax amendments, Nos. 6 and 7, and the chances are that all amendments will fail to receive a majority in this county.

The election tomorrow promises to be a very interesting one. There don't seem to be as much excitement over this coming election as there has been before, but a large vote will be cast.

The voting places for Maryville and Polk township will be as follows:

Polk A, or Fourth ward—Blacksmith shop across from Star livery barn.

Polk B, or Third ward—Gray's sale pavilion.

Polk C, or Second ward—Robey's garage.

Polk D, or First ward—City hall.

A NEAR AUTO ACCIDENT.

The Rankin and Townsend Cars Collided Sunday Morning Near Burlington Junction.

S. H. Townsend of this city and W. A. Rankin's car of Illinois narrowly escaped a serious automobile accident Sunday morning about a mile and a half west of Burlington Junction. Mr. Townsend was going west in his car, and when he saw a car coming from the opposite direction he turned out to the side of the road, but when he got near, owing to a ditch, Mr. Townsend turned his car in, the Rankin car striking the front end of the Townsend car and turning it completely around. No one was hurt and the damage to the Townsend car will not amount to more than $50, stated Mr. Townsend. No blame is attached to Mr. Rankin for the accident, Mr. Townsend added.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Mutz spent Sunday with Mrs. Mutz's mother, Mrs. S. S. Casteel, and family.

NEW METHODS OF CHURCH WORK

Rev. Mr. Randolph in Sermon Sunday Made Suggestions for This Work.

Saying that the church work, as now directed, placed too much stress upon mere self perpetuation and not enough upon social service, Rev. J. D. Randolph Sunday, at the Southern Methodist church outlined a program for the year. He suggested that the official board select chairmen from its membership for the following committees: Publicity, fellowship, and social service. He said that while those who belong to the great fraternity of evil doers knew how to take care of their own, Christian people would not stick together either with influence or ballots to protect those who stood for the moral interests of the city. He expressed the hope that through these committees his church might become a more positive force for righteousness in Maryville. The congregation seemed to take up the suggestions.

TINY GIRL BABY IS DEAD.

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Keegin Died Saturday Night—Buried Sunday Afternoon.

The tiny baby daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Keegin, weighing a pound and a half, born to them Wednesday noon, died Saturday night about 11 o'clock from inward spasms with which she was seized Saturday morning. The funeral services were held at the home Sunday afternoon by Rev. Claude J. Miller of the Christian church. The little casket, the smallest that could be secured, was carried by the undertaker, J. E. Bailey. The little body was ten inches long and the shroud for it was twelve inches long. The casket was filled up with lace and satin cushions to within three inches of the top, and that space was scarcely filled by the body. When the casket was covered, one small bouquet of flowers was all that it would hold. The burial took place in Oak Hill cemetery, by the bodies of two other baby girls that Mr. and Mrs. Keegin have lost.

RAISED $472 FOR SCHOOL.

At the First M. E. Church Sunday Money Was Given for the Wesleyan College at Cameron, Mo.

At the First M. E. church Sunday morning $472 was raised for the Wesleyan college of Cameron, which is a Methodist school. W. A. Rankin of Illinois, who has given $25,000, with the understanding that so much more will be raised, was in attendance at the services and made a short talk. Professor Cleiland of Wesleyan college gave the evening sermon in place of Rev. G. S. Cox, and his subject was "Christian Education."

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McCreary, Mrs. Mary Swain and Miss Anna Swain of Carthage, Ill., who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Preston Seafers and family, left for their home Monday.

Herschel Colbert and Edwin Goodspeed, who are attending the state university at Columbia, came home Sunday morning to vote at the election Tuesday. This will be their first vote.

A GOLDEN WEDDING

MR. AND MRS. JOHN W. COLEMAN MARRIED FIFTY YEARS.

BEGAN ON WEANING FARM

Nearly All the Family Present and a Happy Time Was Enjoyed—Some Interesting Events Recalled.

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Coleman, living at 1307 East First street, received many friends Saturday afternoon, November 2, from 2 until 5 o'clock, who called to extend congratulations and happiest wishes on that day because it was their golden wedding anniversary.

All the arrangements for the celebration had been made by their children, and the bride and groom of fifty years had not been allowed a hand's turn in the affair, so that they would not be fatigued in any way on the anniversary day. They certainly looked well, strong and happy for the day's festivities and showed no signs of weariness from meeting their friends, but were apparently the better for it, and, judging by Mr. Coleman's appearance Monday morning at the grain and coal station, near the Burlington depot, where he has charge of the weighing, he has taken a new lease on life and is good for several days' business.

The rooms of the Coleman residence had been beautified with leaves in all the rich colorings and tones of autumn. A daughter and daughter-in-law, Mrs. A. J. Harris of Waurika, Okla., and Mrs. John L. Coleman of this city, received the guests and presented them to Mr. and Mrs. Coleman. Punch was served by Miss Mabel Hunt, when each guest registered at the table where Mrs. Howard Strong presided.

Ersel Harris, a granddaughter, pinned an autumn leaf, fastened with ribbon of gold, on each guest as they passed to the dining room, where an elegant two-course luncheon was served by two nieces of the bride and groom, Mrs. Howard Strong and Mrs. Frank Ewing, assisted by Mrs. Charles Coleman of Pickering and Mr. and Mrs. Frank B. Coleman of Hopkins.

All through the afternoon splendid instrumental music on piano, violin, baritone and graphophone by Misses Mary and Vernie Thomas, while several very appropriate vocal numbers were given by Miss Ethel Ray and Miss Vernie Thomas. Among the vocal selections were "Put On Your Old Gray Bonnet," "Silver Threads Among the Gold" and "She Was Bred in Old Kentucky."

Mr. and Mrs. Coleman received many beautiful gifts, among them several pieces of gold money.

One guest of Saturday afternoon, Mrs. Glover Kelley, was present at Mr. and Mrs. Coleman's wedding fifty years ago. Mrs. Kelley was then 6-year-old Marietta Green, and she went to the wedding with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Green of Pickering. Mrs. Green, now widowed, has recently come to Maryville to live with her children, Mrs. Kelley, Mrs. John Wallace and Alfred Green, but was not able to attend the celebration Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Coleman were married on Sunday, November 2, 1862, in the presence of fifty relatives and near friends. In those days a wedding couldn't come off unless all the relatives were there. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. D. David, who now lives in Southern Iowa at 12

THE PEOPLE'S CANDIDATE.

Governor Wilson is more than the Democratic candidate in this campaign.

Governor Wilson is the people's candidate against the trusts; the candidate of American principles against bureaucracy.

The trusts got control of the government at Washington while the people slept. Now the trusts want to establish bureaucracy at Washington to maintain trust control; and both Taft and Roosevelt are working with them.

The election of Governor Wilson will end the scheme of trust control.

Governor Wilson will close the door of privilege, through which the trusts entered the sanctuary of government; and open the door of opportunity, which the trusts shut and bolted.

Vote for Governor Wilson.

It looks like Bulgaria would have Turkey for Thanksgiving.

Burst the office-holding trust two or three Republicans have formed at the court house.

Ed Wallace is a fine young man and will make an ideal sheriff. He has never held a county office. Give him your help.

Every old soldier will remember Hon. Charles F. Booher. This district has never had a man in congress who has done so much for them.

The Republican national committee has in mind the names of several from which to select a running mate for Mr. Taft, but they are not worrying. What difference does it make?

It's too bad Governor Hadley failed to get here. We may never have another chance to hear a Republican governor in Missouri.

A vote for Taft is a vote to pay more for American made goods at home than they pay for the same goods in Europe.

The Democratic ticket this year is worthy of your support. Begin with the Wilson electors and vote the ticket straight down to and including constable.

Nobody but Democrats will be responsible if they fail to win tomorrow. Don't be too confident. Many a battle has been lost by over-confidence.

Remember Nodaway county's friend in congress. Remember that he has done much for this county already and will be able and glad to do more. His Republican opponent has not thought enough of this county to come into it during this campaign. Vote for Hon. Charles F. Booher.

SHOT AT HIS WIFE.

Carl Griffey, Who, It is Said, Was Intoxicated, Fired Two Shots.

A shooting nearly occurred at Clearmont Saturday when Carl Griffey returned to his home in that town in an intoxicated condition, it is reported. Mr. Griffey fired two shots from a revolver at his wife, both shots missing.

The shots were heard by nearby neighbors, who ran at once to the Griffey home. Ed Wallace was called and he arrested Mr. Griffey, who gave bond for his appearance in justice court at Clearmont.

A GOLDEN WEDDING

o'clock noon, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Smith, at Old Xenia, northeast of Maryville. A great wedding feast followed and then all went to church in the afternoon. The next day the infair dinner was given at the home of the groom's parents, Dr. and Mrs. Josiah Coleman, whose farm was on the site where Pickering now is. The bride and groom, attended by six young couples, rode horseback from the home of the bride's father to the infair.

Mr. Coleman had been engaged to teach the school in the Pickering district, and they went to housekeeping in the "weaning house" on his father's farm. Dr. Coleman, the father, had shown himself to be a practical man. Three of his children had previously married and he had erected a little house on his farm, near his own home, that he called the "weaning house," as it was the place all his children lived the first two years after they were married, where they got their start and proved themselves equal to leaving the "home nest." When they could buy a farm of their own they left the "weaning house" and faced the problems of life alone.

When the Mr. and Mrs. Coleman of this sketch had lived at the "weaning house" not quite two years, they bought a farm about a half mile west of Pickering and located there, where he engaged in farming and cattle shipping for twenty-three years, when they moved to Colorado in 1887, and later to Southeastern Kansas, returning to Nodaway county in the same vicinity of Pickering in 1894. Seven years ago they moved to Maryville and bought their comfortable home on East First street, where they expect to spend the rest of their life.

Mr. Coleman was born in Adams county, Ill., near Quincy, in March, 1841, and Mrs. Coleman, whose maiden name was Mary Rebecca Smith, was born in Lawrence county, Ohio, in March, 1842. Mr. Coleman's father, a pioneer physician of this county, came to the county in 1855 and entered the land that afterward became Pickering. His children all went to school at Old Xenia, married and took their turns in living at the "weaning house."

John Coleman enlisted in the Missouri state militia in April, 1862, at the outbreak of the civil war, for six months. And although the war had only just begun at the end of that time, he had had enough of it, and did not re-enlist, but came home to marry the girl he had left behind, "because," he said, "I knew that if I did not marry her then that some one else was liable to get her, for she was the prettiest girl in the country, and I wasn't going to run any risks."

Mrs. Coleman told on Saturday afternoon, while talking of the old days with her friends there, several of whom she had known for fifty years, of a Sunday during a wet season when the 102 river was up so high that travel over it was out of the question, that her mother said to her, "I'm afraid you'll not see John today." "But I knew I would, and sure enough he came in the afternoon. He had tied his clothing on his back and swam the river in order to keep his word with me. And he did it a good many times after that," she said with pride.

Mr. Coleman cast his first vote for president on the Tuesday after his wedding day. He voted for Abraham Lincoln, and he has voted the Republican ticket ever since. "And I want you to distinctly understand that I am a Republican yet," he said Saturday. "I shall vote for President Taft because I believe he is the highest type of a Republican. I think Roosevelt is a great big nothin, and I do not care who knows it. Mr. Taft is a man among men; Mr. Roosevelt is a big bluffer, according to my notion."

A poll was taken of the children and other relatives Saturday, and some of the children differed from their father and some of the grandchildren dared be Bull Moosers to a finish against their grandfather, while others were for Wilson, but everybody was good natured, and all seemed to take pleasuse in the fact that Grandfather Coleman could beat them all hands down in an argument. He has kept in close touch with all political life since he was a young man and is as well informed as any man in private life.

One disappointment of the day was that the officiating minister of fifty years ago could not be present on account of severe illness, and one daughter, who lives in Idaho, could not be present.

Mr. and Mrs. Coleman have had seven children, five of whom are living: Mrs. F. D. Young of Boise, Idaho; John L. Coleman and Frank B. Coleman of Maryville, Mrs. A. J. Harris of Waurika, Okla., and Mrs. Luster Johnson of St. Louis. Also nine grandchildren and one great-grandchild. They are Miss LaVern Young of Boise, Idaho; LaNeta, wife of Dr. Albert Nace of Tacoma, Wash., and their son, Fay Morris; Dedrick, Eugene, Harris and Bovoice Coleman, children of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Coleman; Raphael and Thelma Coleman, children of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Coleman, and Ersel Harris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Harris.

High Grade Fashionable Furs

The recent colder weather at once brings to mind Furs—and naturally the thought which follows is of the store of best selections in the trustworthy grades—the store where one is sure to receive the fullest equivalent for the money expended. Buying Furs calls for utmost confidence in your purchasing place. That is too important a matter to be disregarded. We sell all Furs for exactly what they are.

Mr. Ellwood E. Huebner

Of Detroit, Michigan,

Representing one of the largest and highest grade Fur houses in the United States will be at our store next Saturday, November 9th, all day, with a large line of Ladies' Fur Coats, sets and single pieces in muffs and scarfs. Mr. Huebner will have Furs of all grades and those interested in fine Fur Coats, and exclusive styles and variety of Furs in the better grades will be interested in seeing these Furs next Saturday.

Mr. Huebner is not a traveling salesman just going over the country selling a sample line of Furs, but represents as we say above, one of the highest grade Fur houses in the country, and we stand back of any garment purchased that day.

Miss Doris Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Benedict Miller of near Clyde, and Mr. George Weiderholt will be married Wednesday morning in New Engleberg Abbey church at Conception, the Rt. Rev. Fr. Placidus officiating.

A Hallowe'en Party.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gwinn entertained sixty-five guests Thursday evening at their home at Denver, Mo. Mr. and Mrs. Matt Gwinn and daughter, Mary Edna, of Bedison drove over in their car to attend and to spend a few days.

Had a Good Audience.

The Maryville Ladies' Military band gave a concert at Ravenwood Saturday night in the opera house. The Ravenwood people treated them handsomely, came over after them in cars, had supper ready for them when they got there, gave them a good audience and brought them home. The band gave its best program.

Entertained for Son.

Mr. A. S. Robey gave his son Paul a birthday surprise Friday evening, as it was his ninth birthday. His Sunday school teacher, Miss Myrl Oberlander, and class, which consisted of Russell Robey, LaVern Robey, Milo Harrison, Lorace Landfather, Willie Giest, Glen Trullinger, George Harmon, Chilton Robinson, Paul Robey and Donald Robey. Refreshments were served and all enjoyed a nice time.

They Played a Big Prank.

The Hallowe'en party given at Prairie Farm hall in Clearmont last Thursday night was the social event of the town for some time. Miss Lizzie Cummins, Miss Mary Davis, Miss Edith Wiley and Miss Ethel Bush was the committee in charge of the arrangements. Quite a joke was played on the guests by a bunch of youngsters out playing pranks, who locked the hall and kept them out from their homes a good deal later than they had intended to stay.

Hallowe'en for Sunday School.

The Hallowe'en party in the First M. E. church parlors Friday evening for the Sunday school was a great social event and was strictly Hallowe'en, for games and plays and every feature of the entertainment was in keeping with that holiday. Ghosts stalked around everywhere and were very officious, especially the one at the door, who piloted all who came through many passages before the place of entertainment was reached. Cider and doughnuts was the last course of a delightful evening. A large crowd was in attendance.

Mrs. McMillan to St. Joseph.

The St. Joseph News-Press of Saturday says that St. Joseph's coterie of musicians has just received a welcome addition in the person of Mrs. America F. McMillan, soloist and teacher, from New York City and Kansas City, who will shortly make her appearance in a series of recitals and informal studio teas, a pleasant custom she will inaugurate in that city. This will not interfere with Mrs. McMillan's weekly visits to Maryville with her vocal class work here. Mr. McMillan will also be located in St. Joseph in his insurance business. The News-Press printed an excellent picture of Mrs. McMillan.

C. W. B. M. Meeting.

The C. W. B. M. meet at the church parlors at the Christian church on Friday afternoon and Mrs. Belle Davenport lead the meeting. Mrs. George Hartley read a very interesting paper on "Needs of the Fields for C. W. B. M. Day." A story on "Spiking" was read by Mrs. Henry Westfall and Mrs. J. W. Ray had a very instructive paper on "Loyalty to the Constitution." The hidden answers were conducted by Mrs. Davenport. Miss Marie Ritz gave a piano number and Miss Ruth Reuillard a solo, both numbers being much enjoyed. A business meeting followed the program.

Party for Sunday School Class.

The class taught by W. A. Miller in the First Christian church Bible school gave a Hallowe'en party at the home of Miss Blanche Masters, on South Fillmore street, Friday evening. Fortune telling, bobbing for apples and other Hallowe'en games, made lots of merriment. Apples, cider, doughnuts and candy were served during the evening. Those present were Virginia Robinson, Mary Wooldridge, Helen Dean, Gladys Morehouse, Mary Condon, Elfreida Linville, Lela Maier, Marie Cloud, Lou Mutz, Juanita Neal, Blanche Landfather, Fay Farmer, Lillie Mays, Mary Edmundston, Sylvia Frazee, Mary Miller, Virginia Lawson, Leska Wray, Marie Davenport, Gladys Goforth, Gladys Bookman, Maggie McClurg and W. A. Miller.

Fifteenth Wedding Anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Yehle thought to quietly observe their fifteenth wedding anniversary Sunday by entertaining Mr. Yehle's mother and sister, Mrs. Josephine Yehle and Miss Katherine Yehle, at dinner, and in that way kept their friends from knowing how old they were getting to be, but Sunday evening they went to the home of Mr. Yehle's mother, upon invitation from her to take Sunday evening luncheon at her home. They found a company of friends waiting to congratulate them on their youthful appearance and to celebrate the anniversary in a fitting manner. A delightful evening was spent at cards, when the hostesses, Mrs. Yehle and Miss Yehle, served a dainty luncheon. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Yehle, Mr. and Mrs. N. Sturm, Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Felix, Mr. and Mrs. John Kirch, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Blatter, Mr. N. Schumacher, Misses Lenore and Rose Schumacher and Miss Agatha Kirch.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Wolfers, Sr., and son, Robert, and Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Donlin drove to Clarinda, Iowa, last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bram, and Mr. and Mrs. Ode Gordon also made the Clarinda trip.

Glaucus Luce accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Luce and Mrs. Anna Keish, drove to Sheridan and Parnell Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bram left for Kansas City Friday morning for a visit with Mrs. Bram's sister, Mrs. Lillie Stewart.

The entertainment given last Monday night at the M. E. church was the first number on the lecture course, and was received by a good sized house.

Mrs. P. A. Tinkam of Russel, Iowa, visited friends in Hopkins this week while enroute to her home, after a month's visit in Colorado.

Next Thursday night Mayor Henry L. Jost of Kansas City will deliver an address under the auspices of the Presbyterian church. This address will be free and the public in general is invited to be present. After the speaking the ladies of the church will serve a luncheon in the basement, for which a small sum will be charged.

Last Tuesday evening a number of the friends of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Robb surprised them by going in and helping them celebrate their 20th wedding anniversay. The evening was spent in playing 500, at the close of which delightful refreshments consisting of sandwiches, fried chicken, salad, pickles and olives, ice cream, cake and coffee were served by the ladies. Mr. and Mrs. Robb were presented a tea set of white and gold Havaland china. The following guests were present: Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Wolfers, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Donlin, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wooldridge, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Clutter, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. McMasters, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Brown, Mrs. J. W. Lindsay, Misses Lou Hughs, Edna Bonewitz, Kate and May Browne and Messrs. Sim and Sam Browne, Jake Haff and J. F. Robb.

Wednesday afternoon Mrs. Arthur McMaster entertained the Ladies' Aid Society of the Presbyterian church at her home north of town. Thirty-five were in attendance and a fine time reported by all.

On the same afternoon Mrs. A. J. Gordon entertained the ladies of the M. E. church at which there was also a good attendance.

Thursday afternoon the ladies of chapter K, P. E. O. were invited to hold a call meeting at the home of Mrs. Roy Wolfers at Pickering. The trip was made very nicely in automobiles, but just as they reached Pickering the storm came up suddenly and the ladies were practically snowed in by the first snow of the season. The drivers, F. B. Monroe, W. L. Morehead and J. F. Robb returned at once to Hopkins, while J. A. McMaster and E. C. Wolfers, Sr., waited until the next day to bring their machines home. It being Hallowe'en, Mrs. Wolfers had her home decorated for the occasion and the rooms looked very pretty, with crysanthemums, autumn leaves and berries and jack-o'lanterns. The afternoon was spent principally by the initiation ceremony of the chapter, the new member being Mrs. Fred Wooldridge of Hopkins. After this was concluded a ghost and witch appeared and led the company to the attic, where, after numerous questions, it was found Mrs. J. L. Downer was the latest bride of the chapter, upon which the ghost presented her with numerous packages, which proved to be gifts from her P. E. O. sisters. As the P. E. O. had given Mrs. Downer a "fake shower" at the time of her marriage last spring, they made up for it handsomely as this time, and the "bride" was not only surprised but very much pleased, and expressed herself in a few well chosen words. After the "shower" came the feast, which Mrs. Wolfers served in a truly Hallowe'en style, using tin cups, paper plates, etc., but the buns, hot weenies, pumpkin pie, ginger bread and coffee tasted the best ever to the hungry crowd. The rest of the evening was spent in toasting marshmallows, singing songs, and so forth, until train time, when all said good-bye and soon reached home a tired, though happy, crowd.

Moore's Reply to Skidmore.

The publishing of the following affidavits is in no sense a part of the issue between the Nodaway County Anti-Saloon Alliance and Mr. Skidmore. They are simply a part of an issue between Mr. Moore and Mr. Skidmore. As Mr. Skidmore denies what Mr. Moore affirms concerning a certain conversation in Jefferson City, Mr. Moore is entitled to a rejoinder. I take it that the voters of Nodaway county are not primarily concerned about this question of veracity, but are concerned about Mr. Skidmore's attitude toward the county unit local option bill and kindred measures that are to come before the legislature this winter. Is he for them, or is he against them? That is what the voters of Nodaway county want to know. C. H. JOHN,
Secretary Anti-Saloon Alliance.

On Tuesday, September 10, 1912, between 9 a. m. and noon, I had a talk with Mr. W. J. Skidmore, the Democratic candidate for state reprsentative from Nodaway county.

The conversation took place in the lobby of the Madison house, Jefferson City, Mo.

The subject we discussed was the proposed county unit local option bill. Mr. Skidmore emphatically expressed his opposition to such a measure, and led me to believe if elected he would not vote for it. He expressed the opinion that the people of the county living outside of the county seat ought not be allowed within the corporate limits of said county seat. I argued the question with him a long time, but he held tenaciously to this and other arguments against county unit that he advanced.

(Signed) E. J. MOORE.

Sworn and subscribed to before me, a notary public, this 1st day of November, 1912.

My term expires March 1, 1914.

(Seal) LAURA T. WEST,
Notary Public.

I was present with E. J. Moore in the lobby of the Madison house, Jefferson City, Mo., on Tuesday, September 10, 1912, when he talked with W. J. Skidmore. I heard all of the conversation.

Mr. Skidmore was emphatic in his opposition to the county unit bill, arguing against it through their long talk, not even willing to concede that he would vote for the bill if it was manifestly the wish of the majority of his constituents.

After Mr. Moore left Mr. Skidmore I continued to talk, and for over half an hour we argued the question. Mr. Skidmore was extreme in his denunciation of the county unit proposition.

(Signed) E. F. JONES.

Sworn and subscribed to before me, a notary public, this 1st day of November, 1912.

My term expires March 1, 1914.

DON'T PULL OUT THE GRAY HAIRS

A Few Applications of a Simple Remedy Will Bring Back the Natural Color.

"Pull out one gray hair and a dozen will take its place" is an old saying, which is, to a great extent, true, if no steps are taken to stop the cause. When gray hairs appear it is a sign that Nature needs assistance. It is Nature's call for help. Gray hair, dull, lifeless hair, or hair that is falling out, is not necessarily a sign of advancing age, for there are thousands of elderly people with perfect heads of hair without a single streak of gray.

When gray hairs come, or when the hair seems to be lifeless or dead, some good, reliable hair-restoring treatment should be resorted to at once. Specialists say that one of the best preparations to use is the old-fashioned "sage tea" which our grandparents used. The best preparation of this kind is Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, a preparation of domestic sage and sulphur, scientifically compounded with later discovered hair tonics and stimulants, the whole mixture being carefully balanced and tested by experts.

Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur is clean and wholesome and perfectly harmless. It refreshes dry, parched hair, removes dandruff and gradually restores faded or gray hair to its natural color.

Don't delay another minute. Start using Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur at once and see what a difference a few days' treatment will make in your hair. This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle, and is recommended and sold by all druggists.
